Extinguishing of a Lenten Candle

Ending Prayer (Together): Loving God, there are so many choices before us every day. Choices offered by our friends, our families, our culture, our own past. Some of them encourage the well-being of the earth, ourselves and our neighbors; others are destructive. Help us to distinguish between them. May we learn from the choices of Jesus and embody compassion, justice, and inclusion in all we say and do. Amen.

Jesus Bids Us Shine

With a pure, clear light,

Like a little candle

Burning in the night;

In this world of darkness

So we must shine—

You in your small corner,

And I in mine.

Psalm 31

9 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; * my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.

10* For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; * my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.

11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbours, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; * when they see me in the street they avoid me.

12* I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; * I am as useless as a broken pot.

13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around; * they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.

14* But as for me, I have trusted in you, O Lord. * I have said, “You are my God.

15 My times are in your hand; * rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

16* Make your face to shine upon your servant, * and in your loving-kindness save me.”

(Together): Helper of the helpless, comfort of the afflicted, may your servants who stand in the midst of evil find strength in the knowledge of your presence, and praise you for the wonders of your love; through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen

Prayers of the People
The Sunday of the Passion: Palm Sunday
APRIL 14, 2019

Layreader: Gracious and loving God, you have shown us that the way of the cross is the way of life: Receive into your divine heart the needs and concerns of your children, and hear us as we pray: Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

Reader 1: Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, encouraging one another in Christ. In the church we pray for David our Bishop, Brent our Archdeacon, Wendy our priest and all in leadership roles. May they lead us to understand the love of Jesus and His message. Bless your Church and her members as we labour in your vineyard, that we may be fruitful, as we live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel, and live faithfully in your loving presence. As Jesus emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, humbling himself and being obedient to the point of death, so inspire your Church to follow faithfully in the way that he has led us, that we may share in his exaltation and resurrection. Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

Reader 2: As Jesus confronted the powers and principalities of the world, so empower us to unmask all injustice, envy, violence, and greed, and to greet your divine light, which casts out all darkness. Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

Reader 3: As Jesus became one with the poor, the criminal, the outcast, and the dying, so send your resurrection grace unto all who suffer, that they may be comforted by the promise of your heavenly kingdom. Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

Reader 4: As Jesus spoke words of reassurance even while suffering, be with us in our community that we may be a people of compassion and peace, bringing everyone into your healing presence. Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

Reader 5: As Jesus accepted pain, humiliation, contempt, and powerlessness with patient strength and steadfast hope, be present in your divine glory with those for whom we pray, especially we pray for all those preparing for Baptism, Confirmation and Reaffirmation of their Baptismal Vows. As well we pray for (Add Prayer List). As Jesus gave himself to the Father in thankful surrender, hear our grateful hearts in our offering of prayers of thanksgiving. As Jesus humbled himself to the point of death, even death on a cross, so that his Name may be exalted above every name, so bring into his eternal glory those who have died, especially Millicent Chesley. Make your face to shine upon your servants, and in your loving-kindness save us.

(Together): Gracious and Holy God, through the humble trust of Jesus on the cross you have showed us the path of eternal life: Give us courage and grace to follow his example of obedient love, to walk in the way of the cross, and to share in his glorious resurrection, that we may live in the power of his Spirit, now and forever. Amen.
