Psalm 30

1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up * and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried out to you, * and you restored me to health.

3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; * you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

4 Sing to the Lord, you servants of his; * give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, * his favour for a lifetime.

6 Weeping may spend the night, * but joy comes in the morning.

7 While I felt secure, I said, “I shall never be disturbed. * You, Lord, with your favour, made me as strong as the mountains.”

8 Then you hid your face, * and I was filled with fear.

9 I cried to you, O Lord; * I pleaded with the Lord, saying,

10 “What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit?
* will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; * O Lord, be my helper.”

12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; * you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; * O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

(Together): God our Father, glorious in giving and restoring life, do not hide your face from your people overcome with loneliness and fear; turn our mourning into dancing and raise us up with your Son, that we may rejoice in your presence for ever. Amen

Prayers of the People
The Second Sunday of Easter
MAY 5, 2019

Layreader: Show yourself to us as we work and worship, O Jesus, and receive the prayers of your church on behalf of the whole creation, as we say: We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

Reader 1: Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, encouraging one another in Christ. In the church we pray for David our Bishop, Brent our Archdeacon, Wendy our priest and all in leadership roles. May they lead us to understand the love of Jesus and His message. Bless your Church and her members as we labour in your vineyard, that we may be fruitful, as we live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel, and live faithfully in your loving presence. Unite your church with the angels and all of the company of heaven, Holy One, as we sing together, "Worthy is the Lamb to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

Reader 2: Visit those who exercise authority in our nation and in the world, Almighty One, and grant them a vision of your kingdom, where you have triumphed over all powers and dominions to reveal the way of love to be the way of life. We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

Reader 3: Listen to those who cry out to you, Compassionate One, and restore their lives; turn their wailing into dancing; put off their sack-cloth; and clothe them with joy. We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

Reader 4: Guide us in our daily work in this community, Gracious One, upholding us when we labor and have nothing to show for it, and strengthening us to follow you faithfully and to serve the common good. We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

Reader 5: Weeping may spend the night, but joy comes in the morning: Look with mercy upon those for whom we pray, especially (Add Prayer List). Our hearts sing to you without ceasing: Accept our gratitude for all of the blessings you shower upon us. You bring us up from the dead: Comfort those who mourn and receive into your heavenly glory those who have died. We will exalt you, O God; because you have lifted us up.

(Together): Glorious God, blessing and honor and glory and might be yours forever and ever: Let your Spirit empower our labor as we feed your lambs and tend your sheep, that all people may know the comfort and presence of the Risen One, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.
