

Quote of the Week.

We do not have to be "extraordinary" in order for God to love us and choose us and use us. Jesus invites us as we are to come and follow him; he sees a potential in us that may not be recognized by others, or even by ourselves. He sees, and chooses us, common as we are.

St. James Community Breakfast

As part of our outreach, on the third Saturday of each month, St James Church sponsors a Community Breakfast at St. George's Church from 8:15am to 10:30am. Volunteers are needed. If you can help or need more information, please talk to Rev. Wendy, Donna or Loretta

St. James Church Garden:

Work has begun on the garden. Cathy and Steve MacDonald and Mary Porter have created our beautiful Church Garden of which we are very proud and have received many positive comments. If you are interested in helping to take care of our garden, please talk to Loretta or Cathy. Cathy will coordinate the garden activities with input from our volunteers. We will need a little money to buy fertilizer and to replace a couple of plants. A garden donation jar is in the vestibule, if you can, please drop a toonie or two in the jar to help maintain our garden. Thank you.

Memorial Bulletins – Vestry has approved offering the opportunity to sponsor a 'Memorial Bulletin' on a Sunday chosen by the donor. This could be on or near a date of special significance remembering loved ones. A memorial notice will then be placed in the bulletin for that week. A donation of $25-50 would be gratefully received. For more information please talk to Loretta or Rev Wendy.

E-offering – Good News! E-offering for St James is setup, deductions for all who have signed up will begin May01. If you are interested in signing up, please see Tim Binks. Brochures are in the vestibule.

Psalm 104

24 Man goes forth to his work * and to his labour until the evening.

25 O Lord, how manifold are your works! * in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

26 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.

27 There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, * which you have made for the sport of it.

28 All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.

29 You give it to them; they gather it; * you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; * you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; * and so you renew the face of the earth.

32 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; * may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; * he touches the mountains and they smoke.

34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; * I will praise my God while I have my being.

35 May these words of mine please him; * I will rejoice in the Lord.

(Together): O God of eternal light, heaven and earth are the work of your hands, and all creation sings your praise and beauty. As in the beginning, by your Spirit, you gave life and order to all that is, so by the same Spirit redeem us and all things, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayers of the People
The Day of Pentecost
JUNE 9, 2019

Layreader: Your people are gathered together in this place, O God: Fill this house with the Spirit's presence and power as we pray to you: May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

Reader 1: Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, encouraging one another in Christ. In the church we pray for David our Bishop, Brent our Archdeacon, Wendy our priest and all in leadership roles. May they lead us to understand the love of Jesus and His message. Bless your Church and her members as we labour in your vineyard, that we may be fruitful, as we live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel, and live faithfully in your loving presence. Gracious One, let our trust in your Spirit grow so fully that we may do the works that Christ has done, and greater works than these. May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

Reader 2: Almighty One, scatter our pride and teach those who hold authority in the world to turn to you for instruction and truth. May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

Reader 3: Ever-present One, pour out your Spirit upon all flesh and let the Holy Comforter bring healing and peace to all who live with illness, suffering, oppression, or injustice. May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

Reader 4: Ever-near One, let your deeds of power be with us in this community, that your children may prophesy, your young people see visions, and your elder people dream dreams. May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

Reader 5: Listen to all who call to you for help and honor our prayers on behalf of those for whom we intercede, especially (Add Prayer List). Hear our thanksgivings for your benevolence and providence as we offer our prayers of gratitude and praise. Raise into your eternal presence all who have died. May these words of ours find favor; we will rejoice in the Holy One.

(Together): How manifold are your works, Gracious One; you open your hand and all your creatures are filled with good things: Let your Spirit abide with us and in us, that we may love you and keep your commandments to love one another, living in the unity of the Son, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, One God, for ever and ever. Amen.
