We will hand them out at the breakfast.

1 Give the king your justice, O God, * and your righteousness to the king's son;

2 That he may rule your people righteously * and the poor with justice;

3 That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, * and the little hills bring righteousness.

4 He shall defend the needy among the people; * he shall rescue the poor and crush the oppressor.

5 He shall live as long as the sun and moon endure, * from one generation to another.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown field, * like showers that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish; * there shall be abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute, * and the kings of Arabia and Saba offer gifts.

11 All kings shall bow down before him, * and all the nations do him service.

12 For he shall deliver the poor who cries out in distress, * and the oppressed who has no helper.

13 He shall have pity on the lowly and poor; * he shall preserve the lives of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their lives from oppression and violence, * and dear shall their blood be in his sight

(Together) O God, bring our nation and all nations to a sense of justice and equity, that poverty, oppression, and violence may vanish and all may know peace and plenty. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ.
Amen

Prayers of the People
The Epiphany of the Lord
JANUARY 5, 2020

Layreader: Gracious and loving Creator, in the manifestation of Christ you have revealed to all the earth the mystery of your love, spreading your illumination and your abundant promises unto all humanity: Hear us now and visit us with that light, as we pray for the needs of all creation, saying: Arise, shine, for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

Reader 1: Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, encouraging one another in Christ. In the church we pray for David our Bishop, Brent our Archdeacon, Wendy our priest and all in leadership roles. May they lead us to understand the love of Jesus and His message. Bless your Church and her members as we labour in your vineyard, that we may be fruitful, as we live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel, and live faithfully in your loving presence. Guide your church, O Holy One, that it may manifest the boundless riches of Christ by becoming a true servant of your grace. Arise, shine; for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

Reader 2: Let the nations come to your light, O God, and bring rulers to the brightness of your day, that they may rule your people righteously and the poor with justice. Arise, shine; for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

Reader 3: Thwart the schemes of those who abuse the resources of the world, O Creator, that the showers that water the earth may produce bountifully for all. Arise, shine; for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

Reader 4: Manifest your Son to our community, O Merciful One, and lead us to your presence, that we might remember the lowly and poor, preserving the lives of the needy. Arise, shine; for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

Reader 5: We pray for those for whom our prayers have been requested, especially (Add Parish List). We give thanks for our many blessings. We remember those who have entered into the mystery of your eternal life. Arise, shine; for the light has come, and the glory of God has risen upon us.

(Together) Gracious and loving God, we come before you with no gifts but ourselves: Accept the offering of our lives as vessels for the manifestations of your presence and let the light of your Spirit shine within and among us that we may share in the mystery of your loving purposes for all creation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.
