Psalm 40

1 I waited patiently upon the Lord; * he stooped to me and heard my cry.

2 He lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and clay; * he set my feet upon a high cliff and made my footing sure.

3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; * many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust in the Lord.

4 Happy are they who trust in the Lord! * they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false gods.

5 Great things are they that you have done, O Lord my God! how great your wonders and your plans for us! * there is none who can be compared with you.

6 Oh, that I could make them known and tell them! * but they are more than I can count.

7 In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure * (you have given me ears to hear you);

8 Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required, * and so I said, "Behold, I come.

9 In the roll of the book it is written concerning me: * 'I love to do your will, O my God; your law is deep in my heart.'"

10 I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation; * behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O Lord, you know.

11 Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance; * I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great congregation.

(Together): God our saviour, hear our prayer for all who suffer at the hands of others, and especially for those who suffer for the sake of justice. Raise and comfort them, and lead us all in the paths of loving service. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Prayers of the People Second Sunday after Epiphany

Layreader: Faithful and Holy One, through Jesus, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, your Holy Spirit has descended and remained among us: Hear us as we pray for the needs of the whole creation, and let your love and your faithfulness keep us safe forever, as we pray: How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader 1. Reader 1: Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, encouraging one another in Christ. In the church we pray for David our Bishop, Brent our Archdeacon, Wendy our priest and all in leadership roles. May they lead us to understand the love of Jesus and His message. Bless your Church and her members as we labour in your vineyard, that we may be fruitful, as we live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel, and live faithfully in your loving presence. Loving God, you have given your people the confidence to come before you through the new and living way that Jesus Christ has opened for us. Grant your church grace to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together but encouraging one another in Christ. How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader 2. Eternal One, your Word goes forth to the coastlands and to peoples from far away: Guide the leaders of our nation and all in positions of power and authority that they may be instruments of your compassion and peace, helping your salvation reach to the ends of the earth. How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader 3. Compassionate One, look upon the needs of all peoples and visit all places of fear, conflict, poverty or suffering, for you are the light of the nations and your salvation reaches to the end of the earth. How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader 4. Glorified One, your righteousness has been hidden in our hearts and we are honoured in the sight of God: Enable us to shine the radiance of Christ's glory into our community and homes, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed, here and throughout the world. How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

Reader 5. We wait patiently for you, O God; do not withhold your compassion from us. Let your healing power be present among those for whom we pray, especially for those on our parish prayer list..... (add prayer list) Set their feet upon a high cliff and make their footing sure. We give you thanks for the grace and peace that comes to us from God our Father and our Saviour Jesus Christ, offering to you our gratefulness especially for this church family gathered. Raise into your eternal light those who have died, that they may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. How great your wonders and your plans for us; there is none who can be compared with you.

(Together):: Great things are they that you have done, O God, and happy are they who trust in you: Let your Spirit go forth in power and grace to heal and unify your whole creation, that the testimony of Christ may be strengthened among us who are called to be saints to fulfill your will that all may dwell in your light, through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
